Berlin, DE

Summary

Originally from Boston, MA and the child of Greek and Mexican immigrants, I bring a multicultural perspective and a deep passion for people and connection. I relocated to Berlin from Florence, Italy and have since found beautiful community while learning German and building a life here. I am currently enrolled in Intensive German courses to be able to make a home here in Germany. I thrive in team-oriented environments while also enjoying self-led work. My goal is to contribute to work that matters surrounded by people who care.
